

Curtis Men in the Revolutionary War
From the Scituate, MA Curtis Family
Submitted by the CFS President, a Scituate Descendant

Curtis men from Scituate, MA who saw service during the Revolutionary War were:

Abner Curtis	Peleg Curtis
Benjamin Curtis	Peleg Curtis, Jr.
Charles Curtis	Rueben Curtis <sup>A</sup>
Eli Curtis	Samuel Curtis
Elisha Curtis (Sgt)	Thomas Curtis
Gamaliel <sup>B</sup> (alias Samuel)	William Curtis

Three generations of Curtis men from Hanover, MA who saw service during the Revolutionary War were:

Abel <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Joseph <sup>5</sup> Curtis
Abner <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Seth <sup>5</sup> Curtis
Abner <sup>5</sup> Curtis, Jr.	Seth Curtis, Jr.
Calvin <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Simeon <sup>4</sup> Curtis
Charles <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Lemuel <sup>3</sup> Curtis
Ebenezer <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Melzar <sup>4</sup> Curtis
Elijah <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Prince <sup>4</sup> Curtis
Gershom <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Samuel <sup>4</sup> Curtis
James <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Samuel <sup>5</sup> Curtis, Jr.
Jesse <sup>4</sup> Curtis	Snow <sup>4</sup> Curtis
Job <sup>4</sup> Curtis	William <sup>4</sup> Curtis.

[Generation in superscript]

Lt. Abner<sup>4</sup> Curtis, Abner<sup>5</sup> Jr., Ebenezer<sup>4</sup> Curtis, Calvin<sup>4</sup> Curtis all served briefly during the Revolution in Captain Joseph Soper's North Company marching to Marshfield at the alarm of April 19, 1775 and to Cohasset on March 5, 1776 with Capt. Lemuel<sup>3</sup> Curtis as the Company Commander. Calvin<sup>4</sup> became a Captain and served in the Massachusetts Militia during the war.

Abel<sup>4</sup> Curtis served in 1775 and 1776 marching to the Order for Bounty-Roxbury in 1775 and to Bristol, Rhode Island in 1776.

Charles<sup>4</sup> Curtis enlisted for three months in May 1775.

Elijah<sup>4</sup> Curtis marched to the Marshfield alarm on April 19, 1775, to the Cohasset alarm of March 5, 1776, to Bristol, RI in December 1776 and to Tiverton, RI in September 1777.

Gershom<sup>4</sup> Curtis marched to the Cohasset alarm of March 1776 with a company under the command of Samuel<sup>4</sup> Curtis. He also served nine months during which he was under the command of Capt. Soper's company in Fishkill, NY. Gershom<sup>4</sup> also was part of the expedition to Rhode Island in 1781.

Jesse<sup>4</sup> Curtis marched with his cousins Abel and Abner to the Marshfield and Cohasset alarms; was with Colonel John Cushing at Point Shirley in June 1776; at Bristol, RI in December 1776; and at Tiverton, RI in September and October 1777.

Job<sup>4</sup> Curtis, Prince<sup>3</sup> Curtis and Melzar<sup>4</sup> Curtis all marched to the Marshfield and Cohasset alarms and to Bristol, RI in 1776.

Joseph<sup>5</sup> Curtis enlisted for the summers of 1775 and 1776 marching to the Cohasset alarm and at Point Shirley in June 1776 under Nathaniel Winslow as company commander.

Curtis descendants from the Scituate family, who by the Revolutionary War lived elsewhere, who saw service during the war were:

Benjamin Curtis of Harpswell, Maine	Michael Curtis of Harpswell, Maine
Caleb Curtis of Harpswell, Maine	Nathaniel Curtis of Harpswell, ME
Christopher Curtis of Marshfield, MA	Nehemiah Curtis of Harpswell, ME
Christopher Curtis of Duxbury, MA	Noah Curtis of Pembroke, MA
Jacob Curtis of Harpswell, MA	Simeon Curtis of, Bridgewater, MA
James Curtis of Marshfield, MA	Stephen Curtis of N. Yarmouth, ME
Job Curtis of Hingham, MA	Thomas Curtis of N. Yarmouth, ME
Joseph Curtis of Kittery, Maine	William Curtis of Plymouth, MA
Joshua Curtis of Abington, MA	Zachariah Curtis of Chesterfield, MA
Joshua Curtis, Jr. of Abington, MA	William Curtis of Harpswell, Maine
Lot Curtis of Maine

---

<sup>A</sup> Rueben<sup>4</sup> was Lemuel<sup>3</sup>'s son and was on the expedition to Rhode Island in 1777, at Hull, MA in 1777, and again to Rhode Island in 1781.

<sup>B</sup> Gamaliel Curtis served in the militia Dec 1776-July 1780 and was listed as a deserter from the Continental Army as of June 1, 1780.